HISTORICAL RELICS. Furniture for the Connecticut Room at Mount

Vernon. Last Friday's Graphic presents an illustration of some furniture soon to be placed in the Connecticut room of the Mount Vernon homestead. The circumstances connected with the presentation of the furniture are as follows: In September, 1875, a large excursion party from Connecticut visited Mount Vernon. The ladies of the party noticed the barren condition of the room assigned to their State, and conceived the idea of furnishing it in approp ate style. The illustration shows how well they have succeeded. The first in value and importance is an old cabinet or sid shoard of importance is an old cabinet or sid board of oak, the posts and ornaments being painted black. The doors are hung on wooden hinges. It was brought to this country in 1636, and was the property of Mrs. Grey ory, of Easton. It was in the possession of her great-grandmother, who was a member of the old Greenfield Hill Parish at the tirne of the pasionate of Rev. John Goodsell, (*1736 to 1776.)

A curious old sofa in ported fifty years aco was presented by Mr. Amos Morris, of Danbury. An old mirnor was presented by Mr. Andrew Pendeld, of Bridgeport. It was the property of Major. John Tucker, of the Continental army. The mirror, a rough oak table, and a pair of "andlesteicks were in his mansion at Fairfield, which was occupied by the British as their he adquarters. When they left the piace was fired, and these articles were saved. An old Mrseen was presented by Mrs. William

THE TOBA CO BOX. Arrest of Three Confidence Men. A German Centennial tourist, accompanie by lady friends, yesterday took a trip on one of the river steamers. On the boat he fell in with sharpers, who initiated him into a little game known as the "tobacco-box" game, and Justice Gardner, and were all committed to jail in default of $1,000 ball each. The jewelry was stolen from the store of prevailed upon him to bet a $300 stem-winding watch, $75 chain, two diamond pins, and s small amount of money, which, of course, were their by crawling into a back window near the safe, which was open, and making away with a box containing the rings during the tempo-rary absence of Mr. Douglass. There were soon transferred to the hands of the sharpers Complaint was made as soon as the boat reached the city in the afternoon, and Chief many other valuables in sight which were not touched by the thieves. Nearly all of the stolen jewerry was recovered by the Washing-ton officers. It is a fact that when the robbery Detective Clarvoe, with Detectives McDevitt and McElfresh, arrested the three sharpers, who gave their names as sonn kennedy, Thos. Wallace and Thos. Eckles.

These men are supposed to belong to the gang who have been operating at Long Branch and Philadelphia, and who have swindled many a Centennial traveler. The game is very simple. The person who is selected as the victim accidentally meets with a very pleasant centleman and the convergence. very pleasant gentleman, and the conversation becomes general, when the pleasant gentle-man produces a tobacco-box, and, after help-ing himself, politely offers it to the victim, at ing himself, politely offers it to the victim, at the same time closing it carelessly. The victim finds that he cannot open it, and the pleasant gentleman laughs at his efforts, and, after enjoying himself in this way for some time, volunteers to open it for him. He takes back the box, but adroitly substitutes for it a duplicate box, which he opens very easily, and the victim takes it, and, supposing it to be the same box that he had just had in his hand, laughs at himself because he could not open it.

The conversation again becomes general and presently another pleasant gentleman, an acquaintance of the first one, comes along and joins the two. Very soon he asks No. 1 for a chew of tobacco. No. 1 produces the first box, and No. 2 takes it, and after several attempts swears that the box can't be opened. No. 1 says that his friend (the victim) can open it, and No. 2 offers to bet that he cannot. The and No. 2 offers to bet that he cannot. The victim is induced to put up money or jewelry as a bet, and when he takes hold of the box, which is the box first produced by No. 1, he finds it utterly impossible to open it, and goes away feeling that he has been swindled,

The pay of privates will be $90 per mount as heretofore. The board have dis-mounted mounted men doing duty in the city, leaving only those mounted who are doing duty in the county, and have reduced the com-mutation for horses (hitherto $30 per month) thirty-three per cent. The names of seven privates, who are physically unable to per-form police duty, have been dropped from the rolls. These reductions, with the present saving on account of vacancies, will aggregate about $1,500 per month.

ROBBED WHILE ASLEEP.

Story of a Station-House Lodger. A respectably-dressed man, who gave his name as Frank A. Martin, applied at the Sixth precinct station for lodging last night, and stated that he had been robbed the night be fore (Saturday) in the Smithsonian grounds. He had just arrived in the city and went into the grounds to rest, and there fell asleep on a bench. When he woke up the pockets of his vest and pants had been cut with a sharp in-strument, and a lot of papers and money amounting to nearly three hundred dollars stolen. He exhibited his pockets, which were all cut, and said that all he had in the world Tilden and Hendricks "Reform" Club, of this had been stolen, and that he could not leave the city until he received aid from friends in Pittsburg, to which city he is bound. He ended the ceremony, and a Democratic standstated further that he had called at police headquarters to report the robbery, but that he had not done so, as the detective officer to whom he wished to report the case was not present. He lodged at the station-house durpeople might know to whom the pole belonged. Hon. Montgomery Blair presided, and speeches congratulating themselves and everybody else were made by R. K. Elliott, John E. Norris, William P. Ferry, T. J. Mohun, E. C. Carrington, J. H. Bradley, Dr. Henkle, Judge Moore and others. Dr. Culver did not speak. ing the night.

Where to Buy Guns. Now that every man and boy old enough to carry a gun are making ready for expeditions against the birds in the marshes, a good many guns will have to be bought, and this is at excellent time to consider where the best guns can be purchased for the least money. 8. Goldstein & Co. lead the van of gun dealers, and no one could look through their assortment without making a purchase despite him-

Besides their ordinary assortment of s hand and new guns, they have received a large consignment of English breech and muzzie-loading guns. Excellent bargains are offered, and all the goods are warranted. They can be bought for 25 per cent. less than it costs to import them from the manufacturers. The guns have all the latest improvements, and are from the shops of the best workmen. Messrs. Goldstein & Co. have also a complete stock of gun findings, revolvers and pistols.

A Pickpocket. Saturday night as Mrs. S. E. Matlock was hopping in a store on Seventh street the clerk detected a young negro slyly taking something from her pocket. He captured and searched the negro, but could find nothing upon him belonging to the lady. Officer Hurst then took charge of the suspected person and escorted him to the Sixth precinc station, (Lieut. Eckloff's,) where he was again searched and with greater success, as Mrs. Matlock's pocket-book, containing about $6, was found concealed under his ratment next to the body. His name is James Warren, and he was locked up for a hearing.

A Remarkable Accident and a Dental Opera-

On the 4th of last July an eight-year old son of William Whitehead, residing at No. 70 New Britain avenue, in this city, fell upon a carriage-step in such a manner as to drive a ceutral incisor tooth upward and backward one inch and a half, the cutting edge lodging that distance above its natural position and visible through the right nostril, the tooth having penetrated the floor of the nose. The tooth was allowed to remain in this position for two mouths, when, by advice of the physician, the case was referred to a dentist, and fell into the hards of Dr. Dills. On making an exami-nation Dr. Dills decided to attempt extraction through the right nostril, the operation bein performed successfully yesterday—the Doctor having taken one day to provide a suitable in-strument. The tooth is a very broad one, and is without doubt the first one ever thus ex tracted. The case throughout is remarkable and will present many interesting points to the dental profession.

A GRANITE boulder, weighing ten or twelve tone, has been placed on the spot where Henry Wilson was born in Farmington, N. H. Th stone was taken from the neighboring mountains, and bears the inscription, "Henry Wilson, Vice President U. S. A., born here February 16, 1812." This monument was erected at the expense of Martin L. Hayes, a prominent shoe manufacturer of Farmington, who gave Mr. Wilson a deed of the land where his father lived, and where Mr. Wilson spent his early days up to fourteen years, when he was apprenticed out till he was of age. Mr. Hayes was a playmate and attended school with the late Vice President, and maintained his intimacy to the end.

VEGETINE. "VEGETINE."

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System. Its Medicinal Properties are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-sele-ted barks, roots and herbs, and so strongity concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Eheum, Syphilitte Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, indaminatory and Chronic Rheumatism. Neuralgla, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Biotches, Bolts, Tetter, Scald Head and Hingworm VSGETINE has never falled to effect a permanent cure. For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropey, Female Weakness, Leuchorthon, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh. Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the lieart, Headache, Piles, Nervous sand General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect safisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system. The remarkable cures effected by VEGETINE have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own fami-

In fact, VEGETINE is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, November'18, 1875.

H. R. Stevens, Esq.:

DEAR Sin: During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of Vegeting. May wife has used 1; for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything elso which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under aimost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Folice Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fail in with a great of the complete of the commend of the city. The same was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegeting can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegeting.

W. B. HILL, Police Station 4. Boston, November'18, 1875, e can be used with injurious results, a says afford me pleasure to give any furth on as to what I know about VEGETINE. WM. B. HILL, Police Station

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1809, H. R. Stevens:

DEAR SHI: This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and think that, for Scrofulaor Cankerous Humors, or Rheumatic affections, it cannot be excelled; and as a blood partiter and spring medicine it is the best thing. I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Yours respectfully.
